CKUA RADIO / LOTS 401 - 445

Lots 401-445 are being offered with proceeds going to our favourite radio station CKUA.

CKUA is a donor-supported broadcaster that inspires and connects through the power of music, arts, culture, and story. Since their founding as Canada's first public and educational broadcaster in 1927, CKUA has offered musical variety and thoughtful, professional programming. Part broadcaster and part arts and culture institution, the heart and soul of CKUA are the 126 hours of new, diverse, and vibrant music programs they present each week. CKUA's music, arts, and culture programming creates a sense of place for their audience while highlighting the variety and health of the Albertan cultural ecosystem.

Robert (Bob) Chelmick, host of The Road Home on CKUA, is known for curating radio programs that blend music and poetry, with occasional nature sounds (birdsong, thunder, dogs barking) added to the mix. The Road Home is a favourite program with CKUA's audience, and it's particularly beloved by those who start their day very early! His brilliantly coloured photographic collection Flying Colours has been donated to support CKUA Radio.
